Walt Sheldon: The Craziest Pilot in the World

Teaming up with Bob Reeve was Walt Sheldon, a fearless and eccentric pilot known throughout Alaska as "the Craziest Pilot in the World." Walt's daring aerial maneuvers and unforgettable escapades made him a legend among the bush pilots who navigated Alaska's vast wilderness.

The Craziest Pilot in the World, Walt Sheldon

A Partnership of Pranks and Adventure

Together, Bob and Walt formed an unstoppable duo, embarking on a series of hilarious pranks and outlandish adventures that became the stuff of Alaskan folklore. From dressing up as police officers to stop speeding trains to hijacking a floatplane and flying it over Anchorage, their escapades were as daring as they were entertaining.

Their most famous prank, known as the "Great Alaskan Airplane Swap," involved switching the wheels of a small plane with those of a larger aircraft. When the unsuspecting pilot attempted to take off, he found himself rolling down the runway on clown car tires!

A Legacy of Laughter

The partnership of Bob Reeve and Walt Sheldon left an enduring mark on Alaska. Their pranks and adventures brought laughter to the people of the Last Frontier, fostering a spirit of camaraderie and merriment that continues to this day. Their legacy lives on in the countless stories and anecdotes that are shared around campfires and in local watering holes.
