

Backstage with Julia: My Unforgettable Years with the Legendary Julia Child

A Culinary Journey of Friendship and Adventure

In her captivating memoir, Backstage with Julia, Judith Jones, the legendary cookbook editor and author, shares her extraordinary friendship with the beloved chef and television personality, Julia Child. From their first meeting in 1951, when Jones was a young editor at Alfred A. Knopf and Child was an aspiring cookbook author, to Child's rise to stardom as the host of the groundbreaking television series, The French Chef, Jones was there every step of the way.
