As Lena immerses herself in the serene surroundings, she encounters a cast of enigmatic characters who become entangled in her journey. There's Ginny, the enigmatic river guide with a troubled past; Harriett, the wise and compassionate herbalist; and Owen, the charming stranger who seems to know more about Lena's past than she does.

As the days turn into weeks, Lena begins to unravel the secrets that have been buried for far too long. The river itself seems to whisper tales of love, loss, and the unyielding power of the human spirit. Lena's perception of reality blurs as the boundaries between past and present, dream and reality, begin to dissolve.
