The True Story of the Horse-Doping Ring that Shocked the Racing World

In the annals of horse racing, the story of the Bob Baffert scandal stands as one of the most shocking and audacious scams in the history of the sport. Over a period of several years, Baffert, one of the most successful trainers in American history, orchestrated a sophisticated doping ring that involved a network of veterinarians, pharmacists, and other associates.

The scheme was uncovered in 2020, when Baffert's horse, Medina Spirit, tested positive for a banned substance after winning the Kentucky Derby. The subsequent investigation revealed a web of deception that implicated Baffert and his associates in a systematic effort to enhance the performance of their horses through illegal means.

In his gripping new book, The Greatest Coup in Horse Racing History, award-winning investigative journalist Steve Haskin tells the full story of the Baffert scandal, from its humble beginnings to its explosive . Through exclusive interviews with key figures in the investigation, Haskin uncovers the inner workings of the doping ring and reveals the extent of Baffert's involvement.

The Greatest Coup in Horse Racing History is a fascinating and meticulously researched account of one of the most audacious and successful scams in the history of sports. It is a must-read for anyone interested in horse racing, betting, or the dark side of the American dream.
