Lilia is a young woman who has been raised to be a villainess. She is beautiful, intelligent, and ambitious, but she is also cruel and heartless. When she is forced to marry Prince Leonard, she is determined to make his life as miserable as possible.

Leonard is a kind and gentle prince who is completely unaware of Lilia's true nature. He is immediately smitten with her beauty and charm, but he is also puzzled by her cold and distant demeanor.

As the two spend more time together, they begin to see each other in a new light. Lilia realizes that Leonard is not the cruel and heartless tyrant she had always imagined. And Leonard realizes that Lilia is not the heartless villainess she pretends to be.

As they fall in love, Lilia and Leonard must overcome the obstacles that stand in their way. They must face the disapproval of their families and friends, and they must learn to trust each other. But despite the challenges they face, they are determined to be together.
